All workers face the capitalist crisis together

Every day, all around the world, working class people die from malnutrition, lack of health care, industrial accidents and work-related diseases. Every day workers sacrifice their lives to make capitalists richer.

Capitalism requires the economy to always grow. But that can't be. So the economy crashes.

Workers lose their jobs, wages & conditions, pensions & houses.

Capitalist companies and their governments across the world are trying to escape this crisis through taxpayer-funded bailouts.

So capitalists are taking our money, banks are taking our houses, and companies are trying to save profits by sacrificing our jobs.

But we can resist and defeat them. Together we have power. Our strength is international industrial action & solidarity.

Support every strike. Defend every picket. Support every workplace occupation.

No wage cuts, no sackings.
No cuts to safety, no workplace closures.
Guaranteed pensions and social security.
No home evictions, no home reposessions.

aawl solidarity

Workers have common interests and common enemies, no matter what country they live in.

Australia Asia Worker Links builds solidarity between workers' organizations so that we can support each other more effectively.

We build solidarity to help workers in struggle in all countries in the Asia Pacific region.

AAWL is a labour movement solidarity organisation with individual members and trade unions and trades & labour council affiliates. AAWL has been active since 1979.

We have assisted and defended unions from their very beginning in many countries. We support Indigenous struggles and the rights of migrant workers and refugees.

AAWL members are activists, proud to be union, and support building international workers solidarity as the best way to improve the rights and living standards of all workers.
