Our solidarity message to the workers of the world

Since 1886 workers march on May Day.
In commemoration of the Haymarket Martyrs in Chicago,
who were fighting for the 8 hour day

Today we are still fighting. We think about so many, victims of capitalism as it destroys the world

Who can change this system?

Who builds the houses that we need?
Who runs the hospitals? Who runs the factories?
Who teaches the children?
Who can feed the people who are hungry?
Who can save the planet?

Workers.

Divided we are slaves. Together we have power.
United we realise the power of our class

On May Day we remember those who died in struggle.
On May Day we remember what still has to be done
